Important to Parents.

WINER'S

CANADIAN VERMIFUGE

A CERTAIN REMEDY FOR WORMS

THIS combination will more effectually and more easily administer to them any other

THE GREATEST CAUSE OF DEATH among children is to be attributed to Worms How often are we hearing mothers, and are the more fortunate ones be excepted, warn parents to give this subject more attention, nor do they sufficiently observe the symptoms which indicate the existence of worms in bowels, before many children would and might be saved Some of the symptoms are as follows the countenance pale or of leader color, and sometimes with occasional flushes, the eyes are languid and dull the nose at times itching and picking the sleep is disturbed the patient often awakening in great fright and is liable to snarling and grinding the teeth The appetite is irregular is sometimes voracious and at other times fickle, nausea and vomiting &c

Winer's Canadian Vermifuge has acquired a reputation wherever known that of any secret medicine of the kind, and is daily coming to public notice wherever it is known and used, it is universally approved, it possesses properties which no other article of the kind does, is more prompt and effectual in its action and entirely free from ingredients which have any but a beneficial effect, the health of the patient being always improved even when no worms are discovered Physicians prescribe it, and to use the language of one in high standing who resides in Cleveland Ohio, consider it "the only article of the kind he ever saw that was uniformly and prompt in expelling worms but may indeed be relied on with the utmost confidence, as it has never been known to fail, this is the reason why all who have used it will not use any other

We have on our possession a number of certificates from physicians and others of the highest respectability, who all testify to its superior efficacy, and recommend it as a never failing remedy

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

We, the undersigned, have frequently administered a medicine prepared by Mr John Winer of the town, designated as J Winer's Canadian Vermifuge," and being by it satisfied with its efficacy confidently recommend it as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the intestinal canal

G W DICKINSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, &c

Hamilton, C W, Oct 11th 1846

New York Mercury, Nov 30th 1847

Messrs J Winer & Co Sirs—My child of five years of age, was for more than two years severely afflicted with worms, during which time we gave her different medicines recommended in such cases, but they produced no beneficial effects At length procured a bottle of your Canadian Vermifuge and gave it to her, which caused her to pass a large number of worms, since then she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health From my own experience, I would recommend your Vermifuge as being the most safe and effectual remedy for worms now in use. Yours, &c

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1847.

Governor Dana's Proclamation and its Partizan Defenders.

The Bangor Democrat of this week states that the Oxford Democrat had shrinked the editor of the paper for the remarks made upon that portion of the Governor's proclamation, which undertakes to dictate as to what subjects shall not be brought before the people on the day of their annual Thanksgiving. We had not read the article in the Oxford Democrat, and feeling a little desirous of knowing how a person felt on being skinned, or whether in fact there was any skinning in the business, we hunted up the Oxford missive and read it—and laughed—perhaps it was not right—but we did laugh, and were tempted to it by the weak shadow of defence set up for the Governor.

The Oxford man struggles and squirms, and finally can do no better than plumply assert, that the Governor was a friend of the people and a bold and fearless advocate of the universal rights of man.

We doubt this, and in opposition to the Governor's defender, we bring the Governor himself. Hear him

"Let not the voice of murmuring disturb the songs of praise. Let party bitterness and sectarian zeal be silent. Let not the day be desecrated or the house of God profaned, by political harangues, assaults upon the institutions of our sister States, or denunciations of the terms of Union. But let us all join in a general festival that another year has passed and we are still a united, prosperous and happy people."

Now by just removing the sugar coating to this pill, and passing the external of the letter to the thing intended, we have in essence and verity, essentially this

"There must be no confession of or contrition for, our national sins before God or some councils cannot be instituted. All allusion to partisan political questions, must be omitted. It is calculated to make it a matter of too serious thought by the people, and may cause their attention to party and more in favor of right. The support of the war with Mexico distracts our abilities and the means of its commencement and the objects for which it is pursued must not be referred to, since it will involve the administration and the locofoco party, in the wrong, and that is not by me, the Governor of Maine, in any way desirable. In no event must be nothing said against slavery, for that is an institution of some of our sister States, and we the democracy go for this man-made institution as altogether superior to God made man if that man happens to have a skin not colored like our own. We are at work in connexion with the prime place of the slave States, because we have thereby been brought into political power and thereby hope to retain power, and if any man occupying a pulpit on Thanksgiving day, shall undertake to refer to any of these matters, I, Governor Dana, brand him as one who is disposed to murmur and disturb the songs of praise as being engaged to foment party bitterness and sectarian zeal, and desecrating the day and profaning the house of God, and assailing the institutions of the States and denouncing the Constitution of the American Union."

And after these recommendations, or orders, and this string of denunciations, what can be more absurd than to talk about Governor Dana being in favor of free thought and of the universal right of man, and a friend of the people!

It is clear that the Governor desires to control the thought and the speech of the pulpit on the day of the annual Thanksgiving and he does the best he can, and all he can to do so. It is clear that he would have slavery, that great antagonist principle to liberty—that dark, deep sin of our country—that political institution which denies the rights of man, reason, and mental independence and exclaims of the subject, as wrong prevailed for on the day of the annual Thanksgiving. And the inference is natural and irresistible that if he would discriminate that day, he would on every other day in the year. If he is the position he occupies and chose to occupy, as shown by his own words and they are to be taken as good against him, may be said by his defenders of the fact.

We have no disposition to the general nature of this proclamation, with the exception of the paragraph referred to, pass without comment or criticism. It is peculiar. It finds the chief cause, and indeed almost the only causes for thanksgiving in political affairs. The Governor's thoughts do not embrace the great brotherhood of man, nor recognize the Saviour, the gospel and the grace of God as cause of thanksgiving. And it seems the strangest of all strange things that while so steeped and saturated with the political causes of thankfulness he should undertake to limit the discussion of political ideas, beyond what he approves. If he is in the right—if he has the truth, why fear, and why restrict the amplest discussion, and the closest examination?

The Oxford Democrat charges us with opposing our country. This has become quite too fashionable a charge of the Loco press, to startle any one. It only means opposing the policy, plans, and evils of the loco leaders and office holders, nothing more.

We love our country, we love humanity we love our own convictions of truth and duty—We would hope for the strength to speak our convictions and to say a word for humanity and to be true to our country though she may prove false to herself and her high mission.

We dare oppose her wrongdoing, though feebly and by word, and though she heed it not, for we have the calm conviction that her wrong doing tends to her ruin, and that in proportion as she pursues the wrong. It is in her right doing only that we have hope of her honor and her prosperity. If, then, we are ever found opposing our country it is because we believe her in the wrong, and because we love her too well to cheer her on to her disgrace or her ruin. There may be those, and perhaps the editor of the Oxford Democrat is one such, who know the inevitable result of wrong doing in a nation, yet are not true to their convictions and their duty, and prove themselves the real enemies and traitors of their country, through fear of a momentary popular clamor, raised by some tyrant or demagogue.

A word or two will suffice for the Portland Argus, upon this subject. The editor of that paper occupies the singular position of declaring that he abhors slavery as all its phases and looks to its ultimate extinction by the force of popular sentiment, and yet applauds Gov Dana for doing what he can to prevent the public sentiment being enlightened upon the subject of this moral and political evil, through the pulpit—He says he abhors war, but regards it in the present case as a necessary evil, and yet in the same paragraph he declares upon another theme, that he will not do evil, that good may come.

It is hardly necessary to say much of a man who thus stultifies himself.

☞ The plan of foreign conquest which James K Polk has adopted produces a state of things which is rather difficult to justify by our written Constitution. For instance Gen Scott, as Conqueror of Mexico, seems to become at the same time the military chief and ecclesiastical head of the country. In his military capacity he commands the army which commands the whole. As civil chief he appoints the Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the golden city, as it governs them when they govern the people. And as head of the Church he directs the Priests in the exercise of their sacerdotal functions, and they preach and pray as the soldier presents his firelock. By the word of command.

☞ The Belfast Signal and Planet, comes to us in good shape. The new publishers W E Avery and H K Kimball, seem determined to maintain the political excellence of the Signal, and continue the quiet usefulness and interest of the Planet. Mr Avery, the editor, was a young man of good education, of untiring industry, and a firm believer of Whig principles, and who will devote himself with which and zeal to the welfare of his readers. We wish him full success in his enterprise, and commend him and his excellent paper to the favorable support of the good people, and particularly the Whigs, of Waldo county.

☞ We tender our thanks to Mr Maxwell, conductor on the Eastern Rail Road, to Capt Jewett, and to Mr Holmes, Clerk of the Governor, for papers forwarded on by speedily, in advance of the Mail, by our prompt friend Mr Taylor.

☞ We learn from the Skowhegan Press that there were one hundred and seventy teachers present at the meeting of the Institute, in Franklin County.

☞ The Farmington Chronicle states that one hundred and sixty teachers were present at the Institute, in Franklin County.

Hon J W Hunting on U S Senator from Connecticut, died at his residence in Norwich, on Monday.

☞ The County Jail, at Alfred, says the Saco Democrat, is now entirely empty.

Twenty and three of the New Haven Bank from the genuine plate with counterfeit signatures, are in circulation. The Bank will issue no new notes from this date.

☞ Mr Webster, it is said, is laid up at the old homestead, in Franklin, N H, with a bilious attack.

☞ We tender our thanks to Jerome & Co's Express, for papers received on yesterday, in advance of the mail.

Thank the Lord.

Mr Editor—

I perceive by the papers that Governor Dana has issued a proclamation calling upon the Army to give God thanks for the splendid victories they had given them.

This is the first instance of the kind for a few years past, to my own knowledge, between two political parties.

One of the Mrs B went on to the premises of the other Mrs F to gather blackberries while she was found by the neighbor F, who upon discovering her and threw her upon the ground and beat her.

A few days after the event she related the case in a religious meeting with a sobbing drawling voice, saying—

"We thank the Lord, he enabled me to take the old Hag down and give her a good beating. I think the Generals cause of Thanksgiving and the Lady's were about alike."

Mr Jefferson and Mr Polk—The Difference.

The whole country is familiar with the consequences of the non-recognition, by Mr Polk of the power to make war which the people in their Congress invested in Congress. Their grave objection to the war with Mexico was that the President had usurped the power to declare war. Mr Jefferson did Mr Jefferson who then filled the Chair of State did! Did he usurp the war power of Congress, and plunge the country into war? He did no such thing. Such a step was contrary to his construction of the powers conferred upon him in the Constitution. He made no war because Congress alone had the power to declare war. His language was—Considering that CONGRESS ALONE is constitutionally invested with the power of changing our condition from peace to war I have chosen it is MY DUTY TO AWAIT THEIR AUTHORITY FOR USING FORCE, in an address which could be avoided. I have barely instructed the officers stationed in the neighborhood to give each our citizens from violence, to patrol the limits and actually delivered to me, and not a guard or them but when necessary to repel an assault, or to rescue a citizen or his property."

So Mr Jefferson thought and acted. Peace was preserved, by his course and the boundary question amicably adjusted. He declined the exercise of power not confided to him in the constitution he had sworn to support, because—to use his own words—"the course to be pursued will require the means which it belongs to Congress exclusively to wield or deny. On them I communicate every fact material for their information and the documents necessary to enable them to judge for themselves. To their wisdom, then I look for the course I am to pursue, and will pursue, with sincere zeal, that which they shall approve."

Contrast this course with the outdoor and fire eyed agitations of Mr Polk! who claims to be Mr Jefferson's disciple. Instead of the moderate and just and peaceful course of Mr Jefferson, Mr Polk lends himself to rash councils, seeking the advancement of his party. Reckless of consequences he breaks through all constitutional restraint. The course of Mr Jefferson preserved the peace of the country, that of Mr Polk plunged us into a bloody war, the end and the cost of which no one can foresee. Cast out the cousins of the great leaders of "the Democracy," one of the distinguished fathers of the Republican with that of his professed followers, a mere ill fated ruffle, and say, which is your opinion, of the true course to be followed—Richmond Whig.

NEW YORK ELECTION.

Whigs Triumphant.

New York Nov 3
10 o'clock P M

In the city, the Whig majorities are for Fillmore 4779, Fish 3843, Jordan 2748. Four Whig Senators and eleven delegates to the Assembly have been elected. Last year, the Whigs had but one member.

A Whig is undoubted y elected to the Senate in Oneida County, and the Whig Assembly men have been elected by a majority of 700.

Monroe County elects a Whig Senator and three Assembly men.

In Cayuga County the Whig majority on the State ticket is probably 1600. In Ontario county, from 1200 to 1500.

In Onondaga County the Whigs have probably elected their candidates to the Senate and Assembly.

Albany county gives the Whig State ticket from 900 to 1000 majority.

In Tioga county the Whig majority on the State ticket is 200. Two Whig members have been elected, and also a Whig Senator. Four towns give a Whig majority of 300.

Broome county gives a Whig majority on State ticket of 200 or 300.

In Kings county, Baker, Whig is elected to the Senate by 1400 majority, and 3 Assembly men elected.

Fillmore's majority in the whole State will probably exceed 30,000.

Three quarters of the Assembly men elected are Whigs, and the whole State ticket nominated by the Whigs is undoubtedly elected by a majority of 40 to less than 30000.

New Jersey Election.

New York, November 3, 2 P M

The election in New Jersey resulted in the election of a Democratic Governor by 600 majority. The Legislature will be Whig 2 to 1.

Murder at Madawaska.

A man named Weiss, a lumberer at Madawaska had some difficulty in his possession, with a Belgian by the name of Walsh, which resulted in giving the latter a severe wound in the head, of which he died. A search warrant was obtained for the purpose of taking the murderer. Mr Murray, a Deputy Sheriff, and a young man named Buchanan, both proceeded to arrest the murderer, when they were fired upon by Weiss and Buffalo was almost instantly killed.—Boston Courier.

☞ Rev Ray Palmer, of Bath, is delivering to his church and society, a course of lectures, embracing an account of his late travels in Europe.

"A Bloodless Achievement."

"This expression of Secretary Walker in announcing the capture of Vera Cruz has been a BLOODLESS ACHIEVEMENT. Not a drop of blood has been caused to produce this result. The word has had no part in the victory. We have not sought to extend our territorial possessions by conquest, of our institutions over a reluctant people."

Sketch of a Gentleman.

Moderation, decorum, ease, neatness distinguish the gentleman, he is all times affable, different and studious to please. Intelligent and polite, his behavior is pleasant and graceful. When he enters the dwelling of an inferior, he endeavors to hide, if possible, the difference between their rank in life, ever willing to assist those around him, he is neither proud, haughty, nor overbearing. In the transactions of the great, the correctness of his mind induces him to bend to etiquette, but not to stoop to adulation, correct principle cautions him to shun the gaming table, precisely, or any other foible that could occasion self reproach. Pleased with the pleasurable reflection he rejoices to see the gentles of society, and as last draws upon no point of little importance. Appear only to be a gentleman, and its shadow will bring upon you contempt, be a gentleman, and its honors will remain even after you are dead.

The War.

The Boston Transcript has the following paragraph. Although (says a contemporary) Coleridge never wrote one of these "lines," the remark that they are "not inappropriate," remains true. These are the lines with which the Transcript's introduction—

The following lines by Coleridge which we find quoted in the columns of a contemporary, are not wholly inappropriate at this time nor in this country.

Boys and girls,
And women, that would groan to see a child
Pull off an insect's leg, all read of war,
The best amusement for a morning meal!
The poor wretch who has learned his only prayers
From curses, who knows scarcely words enough
To ask a blessing from his Heavenly Father,
Becomes a fluent phraseman, absolute
And technical in victories and defeats
And all our dainty terms for fratricide,
Terms which we trundle smooth lily o'er our tongues,
Like mere abstractions empty sounds to which
We join no feeling and attach no form!
As if the soldier died without a wound,
As if the fabrics of this god like frames
Were gored without a pang, as if the wretch
Who fell in battle doing bloody deeds,
Passed off to Heaven, translated, and not killed!
As though he had no wife to pine for him,
No God to judge him!

Are there no Wrecks?

Are there no wrecks, except the wrecks that dock
The boxes of men who grasp rank with by sight—
No fame but that which rises from the wreck
Of happiness, and waste of human life—

Is there no fame for humble good sense, mine
For those who, meek and unambitious, glide
In quiet to the grave their duties done
To God and man, without one pang of pride?

Ask not on earth—unblemished Virtue stands,
Unsullied unadorn'd amidst shame and—
It seeks no wreaths, no praise from mortal hands,
Heaven rewards, and there its wreath appears unsoiled.

If thou wouldst be free, joyful, and calm, take
The only means that cannot be affected by accident—virtue.

Do not seek to justify all thy actions. Value nothing merely because it is thy own, and look not always upon thyself.

"Is not one as good as another?" asked a Chartist of a Repealer. "Sure he is," replied Sir O Brien and a great deal better."

PRINCIPLES.—Our forefathers sacrificed their lives in defence of principles. They knew their importance and were well aware that unless principles were respected they would be subject to waiver on the whim and caprice of every man who might desire. The Universe is governed by principles, and principles regulate the immortal mind. A certain fluid has governing power over and controls our being. Now it is very clear that a medicine adapted to these principles must be more diseases. Thus on the quality of the blood depends the healthfulness of every part of the system, if the blood be impure then by is unhealthy, no matter in what way that impurity may show itself. It may be in the heart, or the liver or the stomach or the bowels, or in all of them together—WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are of an estimable value in removing the impurities of the blood, and in giving tone and vigor to the system.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of DOCTOR WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, in all its diseases for which it is recommended, during many cases after the skill of the most physicians was unavailing has effected a large and increasing demand for it. This fact has caused many unprincipled dealers to get and manufacture spurious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam. Some are called Syrup of Wild Cherry, Balsam of Spikenard, Wild Cherry Cordial, &c. Another, Wester's Balsam of Wild Cherry, misspelling the name, and forging certificates to resemble those of the true Balsam. Dr Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the only genuine. The restlessly imitate the name of the original, while they possess none of its virtues.

LOOK WELL TO THE MARKS OF THE GENUINE.

The genuine Balsam is put up in bottles, with the words "Dr Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, Philad." blown in the glass each bottle bearing a label on the front, with the signature of I. BUTTS, M D.

This will be enveloped hereafter with a new wrapper copyright secured, 1847, on which will always appear the written signature of I. BUTTS.

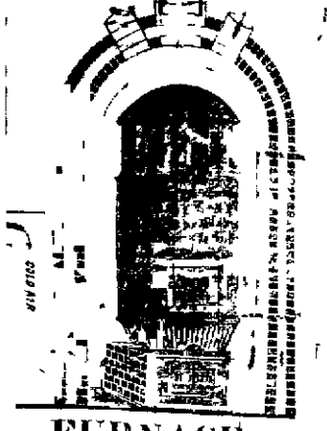
Hot-Air Ventilating



FURNACE.

New and Important method of Heating and Ventilating Dwellings, Churches, School Houses Hospitals Stores &c.

Chilson's Patent. 1847.

THE subscriber sole agent for the sale of the new and valuable improvement invite gentlemen who have studied the science of heating and ventilating, and all others in want of a superior Furnace, to examine this valuable arrangement which is acknowledged by all that have examined it to be the most important invention known.

The inventor Gardner Chilson Esq, of Boston, by many years' experience in inventing, manufacturing and putting into use his well known stove, which has been so extensively admired, has had an opportunity by carefully observing the operation of Furnaces to detect defects and make many improvements. All have seen the injurious effects of red hot iron and the great waste of coal, by being melted to cinders on iron pots, the loss of heat for the want of a sufficient radiating surface, has been induced to remedy all objections, and at great expense and care has just completed five sizes of a Furnace which will supercede all other plans of heating buildings. By this method the air to be heated never comes in contact with red hot iron, but produces a heat of soft healthy air. The fuel is burnt in soap or fire brick, (on a new plan, without melting, the coal).

The construction of the fire pot is such as to present a broad but hollow depth of coal, by means of which the air is exposed to a much larger and enlarged radiating surface. By this together with a great improvement in returning the smoke in the furnace the heat is prevented from escaping into the smoke pipe, which makes this effect saving in fuel. He has also invented a new plan of setting the furnaces in brick which prevents the heat escaping through the walls into the cellar, but is taken into the apartments to be located. A supply of pure air, fresh from out door is admitted at the same time or heat into the apartments and there is a second heat by which you can put up the furnace in the cellar and operate it without any dirt or dust in the cellar unless some is got.

Hot-Air Ventilating

FURNACE.

New and Important method of Heating and Ventilating Dwellings, Churches, School Rooms, Hospitals, Shops, &c

Chilson's Patent... 1847.

THE subscriber sole agent for the sale of the new and valuable improvement now in use, invites gentlemen who have studied the science of heating and ventilating and all others in want of the superior Furnace to examine this valuable arrangement, which is acknowledged to be the most efficient apparatus known.

The inventor Chilson, Esq., of Troy, has many years experience in investing, and after turning a Furnace and has well known. Experience which has been so extensively ingrafted and altered has had an opportunity, by constantly observing the operation of Furnaces to detect defects and make many improvements. And by using steam the injurious effects of a dry harsh, burning heat coming from red hot iron, and the great waste of coal to be supplied to chicken on iron pans and the loss of heat for the want of a suitable radiating surface, has been studied to remedy these objections and at great expense and care has just completed five sizes of a furnace which will supercede all other plans of heating buildings. By this arrangement the air is exposed to a much improved and enlarged radiating surface. By this furnace with a great improvement in retaining the steam in the furnace the heat is prevented from escaping to the smoke pipe which makes fifty per cent saving in fuel. He has also invented a new plan of setting his furnaces in brick which prevents the heated air from passing through the walls into the cellar but at keeps the warm entirely to be heated, and a supply of pure air from out of doors to admit at the same time for ventilating the apartments.

The above furnaces have been approved and recommended by many gentlemen who have studied the science of heating and ventilating including many of the first Engineers in the country.

The cost of Furnaces will convey both to the purchaser by purchasing this Furnace of the same time for ventilating the apartments.

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S CONCENTRATED Sherry-Wine Bitters.

THE Proprietor of this medicine offers to the public the fruit of an extensive practice and a thorough investigation of the laws which govern the human system.

It would be learn by the one who knows he more acquainted with the singular virtues of their Bitters that they possess a pre eminence over all others on account of the diseases which they prove less cure

It is a well known fact that most diseases arise from a derangement of the Stomach and Bowels, in youthful, adult and declining life

Then diseases originating in habits between these and every other part of the human body in the first duties of Nature, are the Bitters designed to remove Irregular Appetite Languor Drowsiness Wandering Pains Headache Heartburn Spiritlessness &c

And these are the first symptoms which supervene Palpitation of the Heart Shortness of Breath, Jaundice, Piles, Liver Complaint, Blotches on the Skin Loathing of food, which embitter life and pursue all its races of enjoyment

The distinguishing character of these Bitters is most striking, their operation being more orderless powerful, according to that order which the disease would naturally pursue when unchecked the disease When used in appropriate quantity in cases of slight derangement of the Stomach and Bowels, caused by costiveness or a slight bilious difficulty, and the like where nature needs assistance to prevent more serious consequences, they will be scarcely felt

On the contrary, in obstinate cases they frequently operate more powerfully causing two or three evacuations daily until the circulating fluid becomes purified This accomplished they act on the system in connection with their food exercising mutual assistance until the constitution is restored to a state of health and renewed vigor

PILES! PILES! PILES!!!

Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla is in no less successful in curing the distressing complaint, than for diseases of the Blood, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism and Nervous Debility Read the following—

Dr Townsend Dear Sir—The effects of your Sarsaparilla are truly wonderful For the last six or eight years past, I have been subject to severe attacks of the piles, during which I have suffered all the tortures of that complaint, and have despaired of ever finding relief, except by the dreaded knife I have the pleasure to inform you "there is yet a balm in Gilead" I have used two bottles of your Sarsaparilla, and feel no remains of my former complaint I send you this for publication, and any person you may see to you. I would be happy to inform of the benefit I have received at your hands

Yours truly, JOHN HALL, 40 Fulton st
July 5, 1846.

CAUTION!

Owing to the great success and immense sale of Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla, a number of men who were formerly in my employ, have commenced making Sarsaparilla Extracts, Pirups, Bitters, &c. They generally put it up in the same shaped bottles and copy our certificates and advertisements, claiming that theirs is far superior and 25 times stronger than Dr Townsend's &c, hoping thereby to receive the public. Some use fictitious names, a few use their own; some of these have even had the audacity to counterfeit certificates, others have induced their brothers and other interested persons to allow the use of their names, to which they put "Extract of," to give it the appearance of truth. You should be on your guard and not call for counterfeits. Principal Office, 100 Fulton st, Sun Building, N Y

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S CONCENTRATED Sherry-Wine Bitters.

THE Proprietor of this medicine offers to the public the fruit of an extensive practice and a thorough investigation of the laws which govern the human system.

It would be learn by the one who knows he more acquainted with the singular virtues of their Bitters that they possess a pre eminence over all others on account of the diseases which they prove less cure

It is a well known fact that most diseases arise from a derangement of the Stomach and Bowels, in youthful, adult and declining life

Then diseases originating in habits between these and every other part of the human body in the first duties of Nature, are the Bitters designed to remove Irregular Appetite Languor Drowsiness Wandering Pains Headache Heartburn Spiritlessness &c

And these are the first symptoms which supervene Palpitation of the Heart Shortness of Breath, Jaundice, Piles, Liver Complaint, Blotches on the Skin Loathing of food, which embitter life and pursue all its races of enjoyment

The distinguishing character of these Bitters is most striking, their operation being more orderless powerful, according to that order which the disease would naturally pursue when unchecked the disease When used in appropriate quantity in cases of slight derangement of the Stomach and Bowels, caused by costiveness or a slight bilious difficulty, and the like where nature needs assistance to prevent more serious consequences, they will be scarcely felt

On the contrary, in obstinate cases they frequently operate more powerfully causing two or three evacuations daily until the circulating fluid becomes purified This accomplished they act on the system in connection with their food exercising mutual assistance until the constitution is restored to a state of health and renewed vigor
